Sale of shares held in Stora Enso's joint book-entry securities account

Stora Enso's Annual General Meeting on 20 March 2001 approved the sale of the Stora Enso shares that had not been transferred to the book-entry system on behalf of their owners. On 31 May 2002, 7 121 Series A and 23 100 series R shares had still not been transferred to the book-entry system. These shares were sold 5 June 2002.

The owners of or other holders of rights over the shares that were in this joint book-entry account are entitled to claim from the sale an amount proportional to their shares. The amount will be paid from the net sale proceeds deposited with the Provincial State Office of Southern Finland against share certificates or any other title documents. The right to claim from the deposited funds shall expire after ten years.

The former owners or other right holders must submit their claim to entitlement from the sale against their share certificates or any other title documents to Nordea Bank Finland Plc by 14 June 2012.
